AWARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 10 (1) (d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, (Central Act 14 of 1947), the Government of Goa, by Order dated 12-04-2013, bearing No. 28/09/2013-LAB/163, referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa, at Panaji-Goa. The Hon'ble Presiding Officer, Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Panaji-Goa, in turn referred the present dispute for its adjudication to this Labour Court II, vide her order dated 17-04-2013.

- “(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Gomantak Private Limited, St. Inez, Panaji-Goa, in refusing employment to Shri Prakash R. Kshirsagar, Sub-Editor, with effect from 01-07-2012 is legal and justified?
- (2) If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

2. On receipt of the reference, a case was registered under No. LC-II/IT/11/2013 and registered A/D notices were issued to the Parties. In pursuance of the said notices, the Parties put in their appearance. The workman/Party I (for short, “Workman”) filed his Statement of Claim at Exhibit-7. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the Workman are that he was appointed as “Sub-Editor” by the Employer/Party II (for Short ‘Employer’). He stated that he was deliberately harassed so that he shall resign from the services of the Employer and the Employer will be able to avoid payments of various dues and arrears over the years, which the Employer is liable to pay to him. He stated that on 15-06-2012, he was issued transfer order transferring his service at Nanded office of the Sakal Papers Ltd. He stated that the said transfer order was issued revengefully as he was supporting his colleague, Shri Maruti Raut and requested the management not to make any illegal deduction from his salary. He submitted that the transfer order is issued with malafide intention to avoid payment of various dues and arrears. He stated that the said transfer order did not disclose any address of the Nanded office of Sakal Papers Ltd. and it was made without taking him into confidence. He stated that on 01-07-2012, when he went to his office and was highly shocked to see that he was not allowed to enter the office premises by security personnel. He submitted that his services cannot be transferred without his written consent. He submitted that the Employer Company is an independent registered company other than the Sakal Papers Ltd. and as such his transfer to Nanded office of M/s. Sakal Papers Ltd. is illegal and bad-in-law. He submitted that the alleged transfer order has been issued by a person having no authority under law and as such it is illegal. The Workman therefore prayed that the Employer be directed to allow him to join his duties alongwith consequential benefits with immediate effect. The Workman also prayed that the Employer be directed to pay to him a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- towards the harassment, mental torture, agony, anxiety and loss and hardship caused to him.

3. The Employer objected to the aforesaid claim of the Workman by filing its written statement on 05-09-2013 at Exb. 10. The Employer, by way of its preliminary objections submitted that the claim of the Workman is false, frivolous, vexatious, untenable, bad-in-law and deserves to be dismissed. The Employer further submitted that there does not exist an ‘industrial dispute’ as envisaged under section 2 (k) of the I.D. Act, 1947.

The Employer submitted that there is no cause of action for the Workman to file the present claim and the cause of action is manipulated and fabricated.

4. The Employer submitted that there is no illegal and unjustified refusal of employment to the Workman. The Employer submitted that the issue of transfer order does not come under the purview of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The Employer further submitted that the Workman has suppressed the material facts from this Hon'ble Tribunal and has approached the Tribunal with false story and distorted statements. The Employer submitted that the Workman was duty bound as per the terms and conditions of his appointment, to attend to such other duties as may be assigned to him from time to time by them. The Employer submitted that non-joining of service by the Workman at his place of transfer is subversive of discipline and is grave misconduct as the Workman has abandoned his services. The Workman is therefore liable for disciplinary action as services and their day to day running has also been affected due to absence of the Workman. The Employer submitted that the reliefs claimed by the Workman are beyond the scope of reference and cannot be adjudicated upon by this Hon'ble Tribunal. The Employer submitted that the Party I is not a 'Workman' as envisaged under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

5. The Employer stated that the Party I was appointed as 'Trainee Sub-Editor' on 07-06-1993. The Employer stated that the Party I is indulged in various acts which are against the terms of his service and which acts amounts to gross misconducts. The Employer stated that the Party I was warned by his superiors on several occasions for his failure to perform his duties. The Employer stated that neither it has avoided to make the payments of dues and arrears as alleged by the Workman nor liable to pay any amount to him. The Employer admitted that vide its order dated 15-06-2012, they have issued transfer order to the Workman. The Employer, however denied that the Party I was revengefully transferred to the Nanded office of the Sakal Papers Ltd. The Employer stated that the right to transfer an employee from one department to another or from one part of the establishment to another or from one branch to another is incidental to the managerial functions and it is inherent powers of the management which has several branches. The Employer submitted that the transfer order of the Party I is in terms of clause 18 of its terms and condition of service and is well within the precincts of the said clause. The Employer stated that the Party I was informed the address of the Sakal Nanded office vide its letter dated 01-07-2012, but till date the Party I failed to report to his duty at its Nanded office. The Employer stated that the Party I has remained absent from duties without leave or without any intimation to them with effect from 01-07-2012 till date and as such the Party I has filed the present false case to cover disciplinary action which may commence due to failure of the Party I to join service at Sakal Nanded office. The Employer denied the overall case of the Party I and prayed for dismissal of the claim of the Party I.

6. Thereafter, the Party I filed his rejoinder on 07-10-2013 at Exb.13. The Workman, by way of his Re-joinder, confirms and reiterates all his submissions, averments and statements made in his Claim Statement to be true and correct and denies all the statements, averments and submissions made by the Employer in its Written Statement, which are contrary to his statements and averments made in his Claim Statement. The Workman stated that while stating the clause 18 of the said terms and conditions submitted by the Employer, they have intentionally concealed the words "Chowgule Group of Companies" which are specifically mentioned in clause 18. The Workman submitted that the alleged transfer order issued to him is beyond the scope of clause 18 of the said terms and conditions of the Employer. The Workman submitted that the Gomantak Private Limited and Sakal Papers Limited are two different companies, having distinct legal entities.

7. Based on the pleadings filed by the respective parties, this court framed the following issues on 18-10-2013 at Exb. 14.

1. Whether the Employer proves that there does not exist an "industrial dispute" within the meaning of section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
2. Whether the Employer proves that the present order of reference is not maintainable in view of allegations made in para a, b, c, d, e, f, g and h of the written statement?
3. Whether the Party I proves that he is a 'workman' within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
4. Whether the Party I proves that the action of the management of the Employer in refusing him employment with effect from 01-07-2012 is illegal and unjustified?

5. Whether the Workman is entitled to any relief?

6. What Order? What Award?

8. Thereafter, both the parties have produced and inspected the documents relied upon by either of the parties and case was adjourned for filing affidavit-in-evidence of the Workman on 13-02-2014. On 13-02-2014 Ld. Adv. Shri Y. Naik as well as Ld. Adv. D. Katekar h/f Adv. A. Palekar remained present for Workman and Employer respectively and orally sought time to settle the matter amicably between the parties. Accordingly on 28-7-2014, Ld. Adv. Shri H. Rane h/f Adv. Y. Naik alongwith Workman as well as Ld. Adv. Ms. A. Naik alongwith Shri D. G. Prabhugaonkar, Sr. Manager (Accountants) and authorized signatory of the Employer remained present and filed a joint application for passing Consent Award which is on record at Exb. 23. The terms of settlement as stated in Exb. 23 are reproduced as under:

- a. The Party II agrees to pay to the Party I a sum of Rs. 2,00,000/- (Rupees two lakhs only) excluding eligible amount of Gratuity & arrears and PF as full and final settlement of all his claims and legal dues, within 30 days from acceptance of formal resignation of Party I.
- b. The Party I hereby withdraws all the claims in the present claim as well as any other claims or proceedings filed by the Party I. The Party I undertakes that he shall not file any claim of whatsoever nature against Party II and all such claims stand conclusively settled.

I have carefully perused the said terms of settlements at Exb. 23 and I am of the opinion that the said terms of settlement are beneficial to both the parties. It also helps in keeping peaceful harmonious industrial relations between the parties. Hence I pass the following order:
